EASTERN DATES TO MARCH 7.

EASTERN STATES.

The "Bloody Code" at the South.

RICHMOND, March 6.—The editor of the Whig and Jas. C. Smith, of the Enquirer, were arrested this morning to prevent an anticipated hostile meeting. Both were placed under bonds to keep the peace.

Miscellaneous Eastern Dispatches.

NEW YORK, March 6.—In Hall's case after recess Judge Daley decided to accept secondary evidence to prove contents of missing vouchers. defense took exception and court adjourned.

At Boston in the annual election for Union Pacific Railroad officers to day the old board was re-elected excepted Horace F. Clark, Augustus Schell, James A. Barker and Gordon Dexter, who replace Tom Scott, Thompson, Carnegie and Dennison, all of the Pennsylvania Central party. Clark was chosen President; Duff, Vice President, and Collins Treasurer. The annual report shows a decreased revenue in 1871 of $103,594 as compared with the preceding year. Expenses of 1871 have decreased so as to show an increase in net earnings $973,253.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Miscellaneous News.

NEW YORK, March 6.—A Washington special says Wm. Orton, President of the Western Union Telegraph Company, sent a communication to the House informing them of his unwillingness to transmit reports of the Signal Service Bureau in future at the present rates, on the ground that he can't do so except at a loss to the company. The present contract expires May 1st.

In the House, after the reception of the Japanese Embassy and ceremonies, several memorials were received.

The bill granting a portion of Goat Island, in the harbor of San Francisco, to the Central Pacific Railroad came up. Sargent explained about the Pacific railroad and steamship company, admitting that an arrangement existed by which the latter could not take a lease or freight from China unless sent East by railroad. He claimed this to be due to the grasping propensities of the Panama railroad, which, by its exactions, is throttling commerce, and now comes to Congress with its antique notions, and force traffic by their route incidentally. Sargent sustained the bill granting to the Union Pacific railroad one half of Goat Island, and denied that the article read yesterday from the Alta California expressed the views of the people of San Francisco. He referred to the Evening Bulletin as the great commercial paper of the Pacific coast, and said it advocated the measure.

Commenting upon Sargent's remarks, Strong referred to the enormous subsidies of the great Pacific Railroad Company, from which men who built the road had put millions clear into their pockets. After building the road Congress had dealt liberally with these railroads, loaded them down with lands and bonds, and now they come for an additional subsidy. He said the report of the army engineers showed that no part of the island can be safely parted with.

Kellogg, of the committee, favored the bill and said that the island was valueless except for defensive purposes, and the portion which Government used for fortifications was the portion which the railroad company did not want. The bill was for the interest of commerce rather than for the interest of the railroad company.

Mercer wanted to offer an amendment giving claimants to any portion of the island occupied the right to bring suit against the company.

Bingham objected.

Mercer advocated the bill. He looked on it as being to the interest of Government and commerce.

Various amendments were proposed and ordered printed. The bill went over until to-morrow.

The Senate to-day confirmed the nominations of Wilbur Sanders, District Attorney for Montana and Jas. M. Castello, Receiver of Public Moneys at Fair Play, California.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

English News.

LONDON, March 6.—Information has been received of the loss of the French bark Alexander. Nine persons perished.

The Inman steamship City of Washington was spoken by the steamer Atlantic on Sunday. The former steamer had broken her main shaft, and was making Queenstown under sail. All on board were well. This allays anxiety concerning her.

The Queen presented her groom, John Brown, with a gold medal, and granted him an annuity of £2,000 for his promptness in arresting O'Connor when he assaulted her Majesty.

French Affairs.

PARIS, March 6—Evening.—Another Ministerial crisis is expected, as it is evident that a conflict between the Assembly and Government is at hand.

Spanish Minister to Washington.

MADRID, March 6.—The appointment of Rear Admiral J. Polo de Barabo to the Ambassadorship at Washington has been decided on.

German News.

BERLIN, March 6.—The upper House of the District has under consideration the school inspection bill. During the debate to-day Bismarck made a significant speech expressive of fear of disloyal influences of the Catholic clergy. He insisted on a clause providing for the introduction of the German language in Polish schools. He assured conservative members of that district that the Government did not intend to break faith with their party, but it would not submit to pressure.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 7.—Stocks very quiet, nearly all business being done among brokers themselves. There appears to be three rings or combinations for purchasing Meadow Valley and Eureka Co., each holding on expecting to see others let go. The purchase or sale of a few thousand shares of either would send the market up or down at once.

One hundred and twenty-nine car loads of freight have been received from the East overland so far since March 1st, and about forty car loads a day are expected from this time forward.

Wheat in Liverpool has declined to 11s. 11d.@12s.—a decline of two and three pence since last quotation.

The steamer Alaska on the up trip from Panama saw the Pacific Coast Wrecking Company's steamer Mary Taylor thirty miles south of Acapulco making fast time for Equador.

At the primary called for the election of delegates to the German School Convention on Tuesday, only the eighth, ninth and tenth wards elected delegates. In the other wards the election was postponed for the want of attendance.

TAKING COLD.—If a cold settles on the outer covering of the lungs it becomes pneumonia, inflammation of the lungs, or lung fever, which in many cases carries the strongest man to his grave within a week. If a cold falls upon the inner covering of the lungs it is pleurisy, with its knife-like pains, and its slow, very slow recoveries. If a cold settles in the joints, there is rheumatism in its various forms, inflammatory rheumatism, with its agonies of pain, and rheumatism of the heart, which in an instant sometimes snaps the cords of life with no friendly warning. It is of the most practical importance, then, in this wintry weather to know not so much how to cure a cold as how to avoid it. Colds always come from one cause, some part or the whole of the body being cooler than natural for a time. If a man will keep his feet warm always and never allow himself to be chilled he will never take cold in a lifetime, and this can only be accomplished by due care in warm clothing and the avoidance of draughts and undue exposure. While multitudes of colds come from cold feet, perhaps the majority arise from persons cooling off too quickly after becoming a little warmer than is natural from exercise, or work, or from confinement to a warm apartment. —Woods' Household Magazine.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

(SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.)

EASTERN STATES.

Effects of Tammany's Operations.

NEW YORK, March 7.—The report made to the Committee of 1870, last night, shows that since December, 1867, $12,153,877 have been assessed on the city for extending, opening and widening streets of which $1,826,427 was for costs and charges in superintendence of the work. This is in addition to further large amounts assessed on property. Comptroller Green, when questioned yesterday concerning the probable deficit of seven or eight millions of dollars in taxation to cover expenses of the city, favored additional taxes rather than an increase debt. He also expressed an opinion that estimates for the ensuing year made by the heads of departments were far in excess of the sum which might be required with rigid economy and prudence.

Legislation on Erie.

ALBANY, March 7.—The friends of the Erie classification repeal bill and object strongly to the proposed compromise offered in the committee and discussed it yesterday. They denounce it as the greatest fraud of the season, and say that its provisions are such as to make perpetual the rule of Gould and his confederates. While repealing the classification act it leaves the present directors in power until the expiration of their terms.

Fire at Nashua, New Hampshire.

NASHUA, March 7.—The Carpet and Yarn Mill of the Wilton Manufacturing Company, of Wilton, burned yesterday. Loss, $75,000, partly insured.

"Card" from Greeley.

NEW YORK, March 7.—Greeley, in to-day's Tribune, says the following is his note, declining to have his name affixed to the call for the Philadelphia Convention: "Friend Chandler, please not attach my name to the call for the National Convention. I stayed away from your meeting on purpose to keep a position of independence. If we have trustworthy assurances of reform from the White House, all right; but I'm not inclined to help our Leets and Stockings to another half million of plunder." Yours,

HORACE GREELEY.

Miscellaneous Eastern Dispatches.

NEW YORK, March 7.—A Wilmington, N. C., dispatch says it is not known whether reports of the death of Henry Berry Lowery, the notorious swamp outlaw, are unfounded. Additional reports are current that he was either murdered by his brother or was drowned.

At a meeting of Democratic reformers last night a party organization was strongly urged pending the expected charter election. Speakers denounced the Tammany oligarchy, and advocated a stringent election law, and the selection of competent men for city officers.

A rumor was current yesterday that goods for the Chicago sufferers had been lost or stolen through general order stores of the Custom House of this city. The Tribune says it is not known whether the goods were lost or stolen. Ex-Gov. Bross of Illinois was in the city a few days ago to investigate, but his inquiries established nothing. Special Agent Howe, upon investigation, reported upon invoices received, but not of the goods; but it is uncertain whether the Custom House officials have had anything to do with the matter.

A meeting of the members of the petroleum refinery trade was held yesterday for consultation in reference to the reported project to monopolize the business on the part of the Southern Improvement Company. A committee was appointed to investigate the subject and to make a report thereon.

The subject of minority representation as presented in the charter of the Committee of Seventy, which is now pending in the Legislature, is receiving much attention from politicians of both parties here. The proposed plan for cumulative voting generally meets with disfavor from the reform Democracy, who say that its adoption will demonstrate the futility of the Seventy's charter, and effect its repeal thereafter.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Miscellaneous News.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—It was recently stated that a number of cases prepared by the Department of Justice against several ex members of Congress and Government officials for receiving money for prosecuting claims against the Government while they were in office have been dropped, the statute of limitation barring them. A number of similar cases are, however, within the statute.

Information has been sent to the district attorneys in several States where the offenses are alleged to have been committed with instructions to bring the parties to trial.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 7.—A dispatch to Postmaster Stone indicates that an overland mail will reach here to-morrow night.

Stocks are very quiet, the market being apparently at the stage known among nautical men as "slack water." A change is looked for very soon.

The Chicken indignantly denies that he stated in the presence of the Sheriff's deputies, after sentence, yesterday, that "it was a damned hard case to be hanged for killing a bloody Dutchman, and getting nothing at that." On the other hand the Sheriff's deputies assert positively that he did say so.

At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce held this afternoon, a memorial and series of resolutions were presented, urging Congress to reject the proposition to grant Goat Island to the Central Pacific Railroad Company, on the ground that it would work incalculable injustice to the commerce of San Francisco, and tend to the destruction of the harbor by interfering with the ebb and flow of the tides in the bay, and causing a stoppage of water on the bar, and for other reasons. The resolutions were debated and finally adopted by a unanimous vote. A memorial was also adopted, and the Secretary directed to forward the substance by telegraph to our delegation in Congress, and to Vice President Colfax, and to take other measures to bring the matter at once to the attention of the President and both Houses of Congress. Much feeling was displayed and complete unanimity prevailed.

GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS.

New York State has twenty-one cities of over 10,000 inhabitants each. Pennsylvania and Massachusetts fifteen each; Ohio thirteen.

A lady being asked her husband's occupation, said he was engaged in "fishing." It was subsequently ascertained that it was a term in the Penitentiary to which she referred.

During the stay of Duke Alex in Memphis, he invested a little more than $100 in cigars, and about $4,000 in hotel expenses, not quite $1,000 per day. While in the city he received just twenty letters asking donations to various charities.

Ex-Governor Wm. Dennison, of Ohio, has been proposed as a candidate for Vice President, and it is said will receive the vote of the Ohio delegation in the National Republican Convention. The Ohio State Journal strongly supports him.

The method for preventing the spread of small-pox, recently adopted in Alabama, is certainly very efficient. It is to let the patient quietly and safely die by himself; hire a negro to bury him, and shoot the negro as soon as the interment is completed.

Gov. Parker of New Jersey, was nominated on the ticket of the "Labor Reformers" at Columbus, Ohio, for Vice President. It may be as well to say again that the nominee for President was Justice Davis of the Supreme Court as people might forget it.

W. D. Snow has gone to England for the purpose of making arrangements for the construction of a new cable to connect with the opposition lines here, and carry messages at reduced rates. A company has already been formed for this purpose in England.

It seems incredible, but is confidentially stated that the first Protestant baptism of an infant that ever occurred in the Island of Cuba took place about three weeks ago. The child belonging to the family of an overseer on a plantation eight miles from Havana, and the officiating clergyman was Rev. Edward Kenney, of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

Senator Schurz in a speech in the Senate on the 27th February, said he was not going over to the Democrats; no one need have any fear of that. But he hoped to have a chance to vote for a man other than Grant.

Says the London Standard: Rarely has any country been called upon to submit to an aggression so entirely unwarrantable in its nature, as that to which the Government of Great Britain has been subjected by the attempt of the Americans to seize San Juan." Wonder if the British Government supposes that we will ever give up San Juan, if Britain repudiates the Washington Treaty?

Mark Twain's new book, "Roughing It," is almost ready for publication. In his preface Mark says: "Take it all around, there is quite a good deal of information in this book. I regret this very much, but really it could not be helped; information seems to stew out of me naturally, like the precious ottar of roses out of the otter. I would it were otherwise, but the more I caulk up the sources, and the tighter I get, the more I leak wisdom."

Charles Francis Adams, who recently returned to the United States from the Geneva Conference, says he attributes the Alabama excitement in England entirely to the newspapers and to the upper classes. who set the idea in motion. While passing through England on his way home, he met several commercial people who seemed perfectly willing to have our Government state how much it wanted, and to draw a check for the amount.

The policy of our Government has always been to get along with as small a regular army as possible. Garrisons are needed for the frontier posts, and a small force to be available when sudden exigencies arise to demand its service. Beyond this the army is useless, and decidedly too expensive to be tolerated. A statement recently published by the Surgeon General shows that from July 1st, 1865, to December 31st, 1870, the army was reduced successively from 150,000 to 80,000, then to 54,000, and finally to 30,000 men.

The late Charles Dickens destroyed an immense accumulation of his correspondence several years ago. Mr. Dolby describes the bonfire as taking place on the lawn at Gad's Hill, and the mass of rich material given to the flames, mounting up in smoke. Dickens himself thus wrote to the biographer of "Maclise" upon the subject: "I destroyed the correspondence expressly, because I considered it had been held with me, and not with the public, and because I could not answer for its privacy being respected when I should be dead."

Vic. Woodhull says she will "spit" upon Congress, which shows that she has no more proper conception of the functions of Congress than the Kentuckian had of a spittoon. His friend was constantly covering the last point hit by his country cousin, with a beautiful spittoon. Finally, Kaintuck couldn't stand it, and ripped out, "If you don't take that thing away I'll spit in it. We do not wonder though, so much at the Woodhull mistake, since Congress has disgraced itself so often, in giving audience—to herself. They deserve that she should spit on them.

The production of pig iron in the United States for the year 1871, is estimated at 1,850,000 tons—anthracite pig iron, 863,000 tons; raw coal and coke pig iron, 600,000 tons; charcoal pig iron, 387,000 tons. The number of operators employed in producing iron is about 140,000, and the number employed in manufacturing articles of iron, 800,000. The value of the product is placed thus: Product of pig iron, $75,000,000; product of rolling mills and forges, $138,000,000; value of articles manufactured of iron, $687,000,000; total value of iron for the year, $900,000,000.

Gen. Richard Stoddard Ewell, one of the most able Confederate Generals in the battles of Gettysburg, the Wilderness and about Richmond in 1862, died in Maury county, Tenn., January 29th. In giving directions regarding his tombstone, he laid particular stress upon the fact that he did not desire any word employed in the inscription that could reflect in any way upon the Government of the United States. Gen. Ewell was born in the District of Columbia in 1818, graduated at West Point in 1840, and resigned his commission as Captain in the United States Army in 1861, to take up arms against the Union.

OREGON.

At Hillsboro, quite a number of wagons, drills and plows are being made by A. Finney.

Col. Joseph L. Meek will deliver a lecture in Hillsboro a few evenings hence on early times in Oregon.

A farmer at Hillsboro has made arrangements to send cattle by rail to Portland, rather than risk the muddy roads.

The Alumni Association of the Medical Department of Willamette University, held a meeting at Salem on Monday last, and elected W. A. Cusick President and S. R. Jessup Secretary.

J. H. Upton is about to start a paper at Lafayette. It is said that he claims the litigant printing of Yamhill county. The West Side was sometime ago designated by the Governor as the litigant paper, and it now gives notice that it will contend for its rights in the courts.

THE TERRITORIES.

A second fire company has been organized at Walla Walla, called "Tiger Engine Co. No. 2."

A new paper will be issued at Lewiston, Idaho, to take the place of the Journal, lately suspended.

A few nights since the house of Julius Stahl at Walla Walla, was destroyed by fire. There was insurance of $2,700 on the building.

A young man named Geo. F. Hoffman, while returning from Tumwater to Olympia, a few nights since, fell down an embankment and was killed.

H. Parker, the land agent at Walla Walla, who has been held to answer for perjury, says that the accusation against him is malicious and unfounded, and he will prove it so in court.

A few days ago a row took place at Walla Walla, which resulted in the killing of Charles N. Ward, the wounding of Wm. McAllister, and the arrest of a man named Walker. The row grew out of a horse trade.

Active operations are again commencing on the railroad between Wallula and Walla Walla. The Company have secured depot grounds at the first named place. A gang of hands are grading. The movement means business.

The French Government continues to prove its title to the name of a free Republic by suppressing all the newspapers that say anything displeasing to it. This is the most conspicuous of all evidences of despotism, and the name of the Government that exercises it cannot conceal its real character from thinking men.

The Missouri Republicans.

NO DEEP DIVISION—FACTS TO BE NOTED.

(From the St. Louis Democrat.)

Certain well meaning Republican journals in other States would do themselves and their readers a kindness by endeavoring to get something like a correct idea of Missouri politics. By a little attention they would become satisfied of certain facts important to be understood and stated, instead of contributing to a cheap delusion which does the grossest injustice to scores of thousands of as earnest Republicans as there are in the country. The fact that two years ago the Republicans of this State were in two factions, one known as "Liberal Republican," gives no warrant for the assumption that the division now exists. That division was exclusively a local and temporary affair, and has been repeatedly and emphatically recognized as such by the Republican masses. The lines have been everywhere wiped out, most conspicuously in St. Louis county, where the "liberal" wing was by far stronger than in any other county in the State. This was here done by the Republican masses themselves, despite a selfish effort of a few forlorn would-be leaders to prevent it, and so effectively done that these leaders themselves openly abandoned their futile effort and came into the common Republican camp. Of course they came with a mental reservation, ready for any future service for the Democracy. The hope of parading the Missouri Republican scheme before the country as a schism in national politics, and thus extending it or creating one in other States, was too brilliant to be readily abandoned. Yet nothing in this State is more more notorious than that the bolt of 1870 would have ignominiously failed had it not explicitly repudiated a national character. The charge that liberals most earnestly resented was that they meant hostility to their party in the national campaign.

The opposing county Republican organizations have almost, if not quite, everywhere fused. The members of the two State Committees have unanimously expressed themselves for harmony and co-operation irrespective of candidates for the Presidency. The majority of the old "liberal" committee have signed with the other committee the call for one convention for all Republicans to elect delegates to the National Convention. The entire Republican press of the State, with but two or three exceptions at most, join in the call and go for one Republican party in Missouri. All that can be [illegible] to the [illegible] is the fact that no miracle has been wrought to shut the mouths of demagogues eager to make what they can by stealing the name of "Liberal Republican." They are by nobody more heartily execrated than by the Republican masses who, in 1870, in honest faith ratified for the re-enfranchisement amendment of the State Constitution, without the slightest notion of degrading themselves into doers of dirty work for the Democracy. The weakness as well as shrewdness of these demagogues is shown in the gathering yesterday, meant to be of national importance, and to convey the impression of a powerful party organization behind it in the State, yet no delegate convention, but simply a mass meeting, with every effort made to swell the [illegible].

HOTELS.—Of hotels, etc., Josh says: Hotels are houses of refuge, houses for the wanderer, the mariner's retreat, and the bachelor's fireside; and a good landlord is like a good mother—he knows his business, and means to do his duty. He knows how to rub his hands with joy when the traveler comes nigh; he knows how to smile; he knew your wife's first husband, but he don't speak about that. He can tell to a sprinkle whether it will rain to-morrow or not; he hears your complaints with a tear in his eye, and [illegible] round [illegible] with a shirt-collar as white as a [illegible] of [illegible] china. A man may be a good [illegible] Judge, and at the same time a miserable landlord. It is too often the case that landlords go into the hotel business as ministers go into their professions—with the very best motives, but the poorest kind of prospects.—Josh Billings.

HOME EVIDENCES OF DR. ABORN'S SUCCESS.

Mrs. Mary Ann McGuire, corner Seventh and Columbia streets.—Chronic Granulated Sore Eyes, for six years nearly blind, now entirely well.

Wm. Gaddy, Mt. Idaho, I. T.—Granulated Sore Eyes and blindness for ten years. Cured in a few weeks by DR. ABORN.

B. F. Sturgill, Baker City—Diseased Jaw and Malignant Tumor, 20 years standing; no one expected that he could live; is now entirely cured and has gained 15 pounds.

Capt. J. C. Kingsley's Daughter—Catarrh—caused by Scarlet Fever six years ago; is now cured.

Rev. H. Patterson, Steilacoom, W. T.—Deafness, buzzing and a [illegible] in the ears; cured in a few days.

Rev. H. Patterson—Was also afflicted with blindness of his right Eye, for 17 years pronounced incurable; by DR. ABORN'S skillful treatment sight so improved in a few weeks that he was able to read head lines of a newspaper, a thing that he has not been able to do before for 17 years. Mr. Patterson formerly lived at Hillsboro, Washington county, Oregon, and is well known in this community.

David Ingalls, Astoria; a well known citizen—Catarrh, Bronchitis, and disease of the Lungs, also Deafness. Cured in four weeks.

James H. Oglesby, Needy—Prostrated with a Chronic Disease; in four weeks gained 15¼ pounds, and was able to resume work.

M. L. Dean, Portland—Catarrh, Nervous Debility; afflicted for 18 years; sound in a few weeks, and gained 12 pounds.

R. W. Haughton, Portland, a House Painter, well known to the citizens of Portland and also at Salem—Nearly blind with Sore Eyes for four years; had almost given up hope of being cured; was permanently cured by DR. ABORN in a few weeks, and can be seen.

W. L. Coleman, North Yamhill—Granulated Sore Eyes; Blind, when he was led to DR. ABORN; permanently cured in a few weeks, and now at work for Capt. John West & Co., at West Point.

Nicholas Staggs, The Dalles.—Rheumatism, Lameness and Disease of the Chest. Relieved in a few minutes.

W. P. Walker, The Dalles.—Blindness. Sight restored by one operation.

Mr. Powell, Powell's Valley.—Catarrh, Asthma, and Lungs badly affected; did not expect to live through the winter; has about recovered, and gained 10 lbs.

John Larmont, Strawberry Valley, Cal.—Catarrh and Chest—Loss of Smell. Has recovered sense of smell and gained 17 lbs.

Hundreds of other cases in Oregon have been Cured by DR. ABORN of Chronic Diseases of the Eyes, Ears, Nose, Chest, Throat, Lungs, Stomach, Liver, Blood, &c., &c., and his patients have invariably found speedy and permanent relief, and most every case has gained from 5 to 20 lbs in weight.

These cases can be seen, so that the afflicted can be satisfied that they are not false statements.

DR. ABORN treats his patients with candor and they are not led to believe that he can cure them when he knows that their cases are beyond the aid of human skill.

REMOVED

A Useful Publication

To Mr Hugh Small a[illegible] and for this writer who has [illegible] contributed to the columns of the Oregon and California press [illegible] State [illegible] the most considerable [illegible] work [illegible] climate and general features that has yet appeared This publication has the proportions of a book of moderate size and its contents are arranged and distributed with method and clearness Before writing this book Mr Small had spent about [illegible] in Oregon and had visited [illegible] every part of the State His perception of the advantages offered to settlers and of the opportunities for the profitable investment of capital is quick and appreciative Throughout his book there seems a vein of candor and sober common sense which is as distant from a strained attempt to "puff" Oregon as it is from the cautious snaling efforts that some have made to depreciate her advantages The writer gives a brief historical sketch of the settlement of the State and then takes up in their order the climate soil scenery valleys fruits fisheries minerals timber agricultural products water power advantages for grazing sheep growing rearing of cattle etc etc an account of railways in progress and projected the chances offering for the investment of capital information as to the best means of obtaining lands and a mass of other matter of use and interest We understand that several thousand copies of this book have been printed and will be circulated in the Eastern States The work is creditable to Mr Small and the publication of so large a number for circulation in localities where they will attract attention to our State is another of the many enterprises of Mr Holladay

Criticism of Mr Sumner

Many German American newspapers both Democratic and Republican, print articles on Mr Sumner's conduct in bringing forward his resolution concerning the sale of arms to France and criticise it severely The Volksfreund of Cincinnati (Democratic) says it is anything but patriotic for Sumner "at the very moment when our Government stands as a plaintiff before the Conference at Geneva against England for a breach of neutrality laws, to introduce this firebrand, trying to convict Grant's administration of the same wrong" The Illinois State Zeitung says it has not been forgotten that Senator Sumner who now, out of spite toward General Grant, pro[illegible] great sympathy for the Germans lectured all over the country in favor of France during the war between that nation and Germany, and characterized the course of the latter as "bloody" "brutal, and "rapacious" The Washington Anzeiger remarks that at the time when arms were sold in the United States, which arms it was feared and asserted would fall into the hands of France, Mr Sumner was Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, but so far from taking any notice of the matter, he continued to deliver lectures and speeches lauding France and denouncing Germany In the debate in the Senate Mr Sumner, though supported by the rare eloquence and parliamentary tact of Mr Schurz failed so signally that at last he asked leave to withdraw his resolution thus backing square out of the position he had taken Many of the best friends of Mr Sumner express regret that a man whose life has been devoted to the higher fields of statesmanship should descend in the Senate to the trickeries of politics, out of personal hostility, and with a design to influence a nomination. Perhaps Mr Sumner never failed so signally in any undertaking as he has failed in his attempt to prove this charge of an unfriendly sale of arms.

A Great Fact

A striking proof of the present financial soundness of the country may be seen in a comparison of aggregate amount of business failures one year with another since 1857 This exhibit is published in the New York Financial Chronicle an unimpeachable authority The aggregate losses by failures during the four years preceding the rebellion were $531 700 000 During the last four years the aggregate losses have been $312,242,000 Let it be borne in mind that the volume of business has been vastly greater during the latter than during the former period. We have then this fact, that with an immensely heavier aggregate of business the losses by failures during the last four years have been little more than half what they were during the four years immediately preceding the war There is a reason for this It lies in the fact that our business is now transacted on a sound American basis that, having discarded free trade we are able to keep possession of and control our own makets, that, having shut off ruinous foreign competition, we are able to develop and control our own industries and conduct business on a basis of security certainty and independence A great fact like that cited stands out as a prominent vindication of the present policy of the country The continuation of this policy and, the continued ascendency of the political ideas that support it is as a sagacious journal expresses it our only security against political confusion financial convulsion collapse of national debt and credit, and general bankruptcy "

A letter from Senator Corbett, which we publish to-day gives information that he has succeeded in inducing the Senate Committee on Commerce to agree to an appropriation of fifty thousand dollars to build and operate a dredger on the lower Wallamet and Columbia rivers Work at Washington like this is what our State needs Our Republican Senator is untiring and successful in his efforts in behalf of Oregon our Democratic Senator can do nothing but draw his salary Says the Salem Statesman Mr Corbett is the Senator the Herald expresses great anxiety to be rid of It doesn't strike us that the people of Oregon would have much show if a Democrat should get the place The case would go against us by default with another man like Kelly

When the country says the Herald gets ready for a change that will inevitably result in turning thieves out of office it will certainly elect a Democratic administration The last and most perfect exhibit of the results of Democratic administration with which the country has been favored was seen no great while ago in New York The phrase turning thieves out of office coming from the party which produced Tammany is good Thieves have been turned out of office by wholesale during the past year and that seems to be the reason why so few of a certain party are left in

Where They Will Stand

[illegible] with great display [illegible] Senator Kelly [illegible] in opposition to the policy and we are told that since last fall the aspect of affairs has so changed as to render passivism unnecessary Many Democrats [illegible] intimated who were then disposed to accept it [illegible] the [illegible] cause [illegible] are now returning to the ideas of Bourbon [illegible] straight Democratic principles It will be readily inferred from the [illegible] that Senator Kelly is among those who have undergone this transformation It is the old story of the devil who when he fell sick was very much disposed to be a saint but who on convalescing returned at once to his old principles and old ways In this case however the convalescence is wholly deceptive and the Democracy who are suddenly and causelessly elated with their supposed improved prospects will meet with a sudden relapse as they have done many times heretofore

But in spite of Senator Kelly's recantation it is emphatically true that passivism is making rapid progress in the Democratic party Since the passive policy was first proposed there has been no official authoritative utterance of the party against it It has been adopted by Democratic Committees and Conventions in State after State The last platform is that adopted by Democrats of Connecticut It declares that the constitutional amendments embodying emancipation civil rights and the enfranchisement of the colored race are "established facts deserving the support of all good citizens The New York Day Book calls this a humiliating surrender to the so called Republican element that opposes Grant" It says that the only thing it has seen recorded in praise of the Democratic candidate for Governor is that he patriotically supported the war and Lincoln's administration The Day Book asserts that there are many honest Democrats who will not be dragged up to support a platform which they know to be a lie and a fraud Of course this isn't true, as Democrats are always whipped in

It is just as certain as anything can be that this party in the coming Presidential campaign will stand on a platform similar to that adopted in Connecticut Of course it isn't popular in Oregon but Oregon Democrats must take what is given them Their protests will amount to nothing and they will all be driven up to the polls to vote for a candidate for President whose greatest claim to praise will be that he "patriotically supported the war and Lincoln's administration, and that he stands on a platform which accepts the constitutional amendments and all leading Republican measures as "established facts which deserve the support of good citizens of all parties

Tittle tattle to infinity This is what the report of the Investigating Commission which has cost the State so large a sum of money is There are a few points which should have been made sharp and clear But these are obscured and lost in the endless gabble about trifles of the Commission's own invention The expenditure of several thousand dollars on such a mass of rubbish is far more reprehensible than the loose irregular way of doing business that is charged against the late administration of the State

Dispatches a day or two since stated that another little deficiency of about $300,000 has been disclosed in the city of Brooklyn Tammany had a branch there It takes a considerable time to get to the final results of Democratic administration in those cities

The Boston Advertiser criticises Mr Greeley It says "It is well understood that Mr Greeley is working in his own way to destroy confidence in political agencies which no longer interest him but which are the only support and assurance the country has of good government now and hereafter

General Grant and his Assailants

[From Harper's Weekly]

If the administration were the seething mass of corruption which it is sometimes alleged to be would the Democratic party be in the moribund condition which the action of its Connecticut convention reveals? Could that party ask anything more favorable to its hopes than a dominant opposition dissolving in its own corruption? What does the situation show but that the Republican hold upon the heart of the country is very sure? Yet what has so confirmed that hold but the general confidence in the character and purpose of the administration? It is true that certain gentlemen who are called the President's friends oppose measures which he has recommended such as the reform of the civil service and amnesty But the gentlemen have always opposed them and have opposed them openly and despite their opposition the President urges them It is alleged that this shows the President's interest in them to be a shallow pretence Indeed! and when was it shown that the will and tenacity of General Grant were less than those of the gentlemen who are called his friends? And what events in his career justify the theory that his action is mingled of folly and duplicity

From this time to the assembling of the Republican convention the attempt to stain the character of the President and to stigmatize him to the country as unfit for another term, will be incessant and malevolent But he has been in the Wilderness before and he came out of it They mistake profoundly and perilously who suppose that the people forget, or that the mists of calumny that gather about every administration have obscured the remembrance of the days when General Grant was the hope of America and liberty Coming fresh from the camp to the cabinet has he betrayed one of the great principles of the party which lifted him to power? Differing from many honored leaders as they differ among themselves has he forgotten the emancipated race or the honor of the nation or the welfare of the people? Silent by nature and by the conditions of his position has he to one honest mind seemed guilty of any of the foul charges that have been thundered against him There will certainly be an indignant reaction in the mind and heart of the American people against the relentless effort to injure the good name of the President of the United States—a reaction which will surely and triumphantly re elect him as a man who in the "fierce light" of the intensest party animosity as in the long doubt of the war has shown himself a modest and faithful servant of his country

Hard [illegible] The Gold Hill [illegible] of February 3d says Early day before yesterday morning shortly after the killing of O Rourke by Prentice a man came rushing to see Dr Hall telling him that he was wanted down to the Piute House right away as a man was shot through the bowels How badly is he hurt inquired the doctor Hurt is it? Why the whole belly's blown off him and he's dead Ah well then what does he want of a doctor? Is that so said the messenger reflectively and left The doctor wasn't sent for again Some people apparently do not think a man is officially dead until a doctor pronounces him so

The report that the Pope has consented in consideration of certain concessions by the Russian Government to the use of the Russian language in religious services in Poland is explained by the Catholic papers to mean simply that he has authorized the Polish priests to preach and teach the catechism in the Russian language

About Gas Measurements

[illegible] IN THE SPECIFIC GRAVITY OF GASES

The following article from the Journal of Applied Science (New York) will be interesting to those who live under the gas light. The writer says

The custom of paying for gas by the cubic foot without regard to its illuminating power is like buying all cloth at a uniform price per yard without any questions as to the fineness of the wool No one would like to pay as much for shoddy as for cassimere and yet shoddy gas is the principal article now furnished to customers while the price actually paid calls for the best gas that can be made It is really surprising that a monopoly of such a monstrous character should be permitted to maintain itself so many years in an enlightened community and the cause must be sought for in the want of confidence in any legislative enactment to correct the evil under the corrupt government that has afflicted our city during the past few years The people have preferred to be heavily taxed rather than to get into any altercation on the subject but now that honest days begin to have dawned upon us it seems to be a good opportunity to appeal for more light to those who sell that commodity in the shape of gas The city companies should be compelled to furnish gas of a prescribed density and fixed candle power

Some of the London companies pride themselves on keeping up the illuminating powers of their gas to the maximum standard of fifteen candles, and in twenty two English works the gas from the best coal ranges from twelve to fourteen per hour It is difficult to say what the average in New York may be but from some observation made by ourselves with Benson's photometer we are disposed to put it in cold weather at below ten candles Besides the loss to the consumer in the amount of light afforded by a poor gas there is another difference which tells in favor of the company Assuming the specific gravity of the poor gas to be 5 and that of a rich gas to be 7 50, the former will pass through the burner much faster than the rich, and increase the bills of the consumer from 30 to 50 per cent , without any corresponding increase in the photometric power of the gas There ought to be a fixed standard, say sixteen candles, prescribed by law, and an inspector appointed to see that the companies comply with it and in case of any breach of contract a heavy penalty should be imposed It is not darkness that we want but light and for the sake of the thousands of poor sewing women and workingmen something should be done to save money and eye-sight Let quality, not quantity, govern in this matter We have plenty of gas but not enough of light

The Faithless Restored —In South Carolina lately has been enacted another version of the "old old story" of man's inconstancy and woman's constancy A lady now no longer young after many years of waiting, has been married to her love who was far from being free She had supposed him dead —killed for the sake of the lost cause—and for nine long years had mourned his loss refusing by the score admirers of her beauty and her wit, both of which were more than ordinary, for she came of a Huguenot stock renowned for their good looks and good sense and an ancestress of hers was one of the beauties at the court of Catherine de Medici and mistress of the King of Navarre While she was thus mourning her life away her recreant lover was alive and well and the husband of a Northern woman. He had been left dead on one of the fields where the Southern chivalry were worsted but under the skillful treatment of the Federal surgeons and tender care of a brown eyed hospital nurse had regained his lease of life, but lost the heart which was not his to lose Taking advantage of his death being reported he came to the North and under a feigned name married his hospital fairy With her he lived happily until the fall of 1870 when death took her away Then at his deserted hearthstone the lonely man thought of his Southern love and his old passion returned He yielded to the yearning to see her again and with three children the fruit of his marriage went back to Ole Caroliny and, ashamed and trembling presented himself before her She on her part forgot and forgave him all and has taken the vows which make her a mother to his children

Anecdote of the Grand Duke Alexis.—The Emperor's third son Alexis is in the naval service Somewhat more than a year ago when holding the rank of midshipman the flag ship in which he was serving was wrecked on the coast of Denmark The Admiral ordered the life boats to be lowered and directed Alexis to take charge of the first boat The royal midshipman declined to obey the order It was peremptorily repeated I your commanding officer order you into the boat. Admiral, I cannot obey you said the young Prince. It would not become the son of the Emperor to be the first to leave the ship I shall remain with you to the last But I shall put you under arrest for disobedience of orders as soon as circumstances will allow me to do so I mean no disobedience but I cannot obey replied the young hero In due time almost the entire crew reached the shore in safety only some four or five having perished in the transit from the ship Among the last to land were the Admiral and the Grand Duke Alexis Tents were hastily erected from the sails and spars saved from the wreck and the rigid discipline of ship life was promptly resumed The young prince was placed under arrest for his previous disobedience of orders As soon as possible the Russian minister at Copenhagen was informed of the facts and telegraphed them to the Emperor from whom he received the following reply I approve of the act of the Admiral in placing the midshipman under arrest for disobedience of orders and I bless and kiss my son for disobeying them —Lippincott's Magazine

Horace Greeley after a long career as one of the straightest sect of Radical Republicans during which he has worn the harness most faithfully and trod in the beaten path without complaint has grown frisky in his old age and now suddenly kicks over the traces with the announcement that the [illegible] national nominating conventions are not binding on anybody It looks very much as if the venerable philosopher had made up his mind that the National Republican Convention is going to nominate Grant whom he hates Hence the pronouncement of perfect liberty of political conscience We have read in the New York Tribune in days gone by of the moral obligation to sustain one's party

The Boston Post had 1 300 answers to its $1 000 prize problem requiring to know how long it will take a locomotive to run one hundred miles provided it goes fifty miles the first hour, twenty five the next twelve and a half the next and so on Of course the offer was eminently safe as the problem involves an infinite progress forever leaving a remainder to be divided or as one of the mathematicians puts it we have the startling proposition that a body may move towards a stationary point always keeping in motion and never reach it Yet most of the replies purport to give the exact time the locomotive would take to reach the end of its journey

Tactics of the Bolters

The New York Herald thus gives a connected account of the several attacks on the administration by the anti Grant Republicans

The bolters from the administration have no faith in themselves as a new party nor in each other as confederates Their whole visible strength is limited to four or five members of the national Senate and to half a dozen newspapers each representing its little clique and all suspicious of each other As they have all, however had their disappointments as office seekers they have all at least this common bond of unity against the military despotism at Washington Nor have they been wanting in industry in their efforts to break the prestige of General Grant's popularity and the public confidence in his administration They have been at it for a year and more in the Senate Their war on the St Domingo annexation scheme from the violence of their assaults upon General Grant, betrayed their grand object but with prompt abandonment of that scheme, on finding there was mischief in it, the President spiked all the guns of that formidable battery Next Messrs Sumner and Fenton were seized with a virtuous fit in the matter of civil service reform but they were completely flanked on that question by a message from the White House announcing the adoption of the reform suggestion Next Mr Sumner quoting Henry Clay and various other high authorities in a lengthy preamble brought in a resolution affirming the saving wisdom of the one term principle but this experiment against Gen Grant was also a flash in the pan

The case was becoming desperate when the happy thought, like an inspiration, came of this New York Custom House investigation But here too, the developments of corruption blown to the world are only those which have been handed down in the system established from one administration to another for forty years, and in immediately undertaking to correct the abuses disclosed, General Grant silences this battery What then could be done to cripple him with the honest masses of the Republican party The last resort of impeachment had been talked over and abandoned as utterly impracticable We have it [illegible] they in these sales of arms to the French during the Franco German war And with a preamble as solemn and portentous as a dozen articles of impeachment, Mr Sumner brings in his resolution for an investigation

The four or five anti Grant Republican Senators with their half a dozen anti Grant Republican journals have in short, exhausted their available stock of ammunition in the Senate in this matter of the sales of arms to the French We expect now that they will turn their attention to the approaching New Hampshire and Connecticut elections and as with the full party vote on each side both those States are closely contested a few bolting disciples of Mr Sumner and of his faction may give both those States to the Democrats If so you may be sure that Democratic and anti Grant Republican journals will join in shouting hosannas in honor of the great popular revolution calling for the dropping of Grant by the Republican party But the trick will fail The Philadelphia Convention will not be frightened from Grant by such guerrilla tactics as these

The party of Gen Grant is like a regular army well disciplined, compact and strong and with a leader who has the confidence of his officers and men; the opposition elements including the Democratic party are like a disorderly army of militia detachments under different leaders with different purposes here and there and distrustful of each other And so with the renomination of General Grant we suspect that the actual Republican reinforcements to the Democratic camp will be found as profitless as the recruits from Andy Johnson

The Insurance and Suicide [illegible] has been given in the Supreme Court against the Knickerbocker Life Insurance Company in a suit turning upon the question of suicide The plaintiff was the widow of a man who had shot himself and the amount of the insurance policy was $10 000 Payment having been resisted on the ground that the policy contained a clause freeing the company from responsibility in case the party insured should die by his own hand sane or insane the old question came up again with the usual result The verdict is for the full amount named in the policy with interest added Repeated verdicts of this character against the life insurance companies establish so many precedents that it is evidently useless to continue the process of litigation It would be better to expunge the [illegible] anti suicide clause of the policies than to incur defeat in new suits and pay costs besides Juries seem to be readily convinced that the heirs of a suicide are entitled to the policy which he kept up by regular payments of premiums to a life insurance company [illegible] Id erlger

Wednesday Evening March 13th, 1872,

at ½ o'clock

SUBJECT— Ought we to have a National System of Compulsory Education?

This subject is rapidly assuming great importance in the [illegible] people of the United States The sentiment is growing that we should not longer be content to see ourselves surpassed by the monarchical governments of Europe Our existence as a nation depends upon popular education and our advancement in national power wisdom and virtue will keep pace with its extension Already has a bill been introduced in Congress looking toward the establishment of a National System and we shall soon find it to be an important element in [illegible]

MR HARE has devoted considerable study to this subject and his Lecture will be a plea for a national law [illegible] necessity for it in almost all religious and civil [illegible] our present system and hope that we have the power to remedy the defects by Congressional enactment

No one who has the welfare of his country at heart can afford to miss this Lecture It is impossible to overestimate its importance Of Mr Hare's ability to treat this subject it is unnecessary to speak. He is well known in this community as a man of [illegible] and honest convictions a lawyer of ability and a fluent and agreeable speaker His name is sufficient guarantee that the subject will be presented with all the power which its importance demands

The [illegible] of THE DAILY AND WEEKLY OREGONIAN is removed to [illegible] corner of Stark and Front streets

A Useful Publication

To Mr Hugh Small a graceful and forcible writer who has often contributed to the columns of the Oregon and California press our State is indebted for the most considerable and useful descriptive work on its resources climate and general features that has yet appeared This publication has the proportions of a book of moderate size and its contents are arranged and distributed with method and clearness Before writing this book Mr Small had spent about a year in Oregon and had visited nearly every part of the State His perception of the advantages offered to settlers, and of the opportunities for the profitable investment of capital is quick and appreciative Throughout his book there seems a vein of candor and sober common sense which is as distant from a strained attempt to puff Oregon as it is from the cautious snaling efforts that some have made to deprecate her advantages The writer gives a brief historical sketch of the settlement of the State and then takes up in their order the climate, soil scenery, valleys, fruits, fisheries minerals timber agricultural products, water power advantages for grazing sheep-growing rearing of cattle etc etc an account of railways in progress and projected the chances offering for the investment of capital information as to the best means of obtaining lands and a mass of other matter of use and interest We understand that several thousand copies of this book have been printed and will be circulated in the Eastern States The work is creditable to Mr Small, and the publication of so large a number for circulation in localities where they will attract attention to our State is another of the many enterprises of Mr Holladay

Criticism of Mr Sumner

Many German-American newspapers both Democratic and Republican print articles on Mr Sumner's conduct in bringing forward his resolution concerning the sale of arms to France, and criticise it severely The Volksfreund of Cincinnati (Democratic) says it is anything but patriotic for Sumner, "at the very moment when our Government stands as a plaintiff before the Conference at Geneva against England for a breach of neutrality laws, to introduce this firebrand, trying to convict Grant's administration of the same wrong" The Illinois State Zeitung says it has not been forgotten that Senator Sumner, who now, out of spite toward General Grant, professes great sympathy for the Germans lectured all over the country in favor of France during the war between that nation and Germany, and characterized the course of the latter as "bloody," "brutal," and "rapacious The Washington Anzeiger remarks that at the time when arms were sold in the United States which arms it was feared and [illegible]rted would fall into the hands of France, Mr Sumner was Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, but so far from taking any notice of the matter, he continued to deliver lectures and speeches lauding France and denouncing Germany In the debate in the Senate, Mr Sumner, though supported by the rare eloquence and parliamentary tact of Mr Schurz, failed so signally that at last he asked leave to withdraw his resolution, thus backing square out of the position he had taken. Many of the best friends of Mr. Sumner ex[illegible] that a man whose life has been devoted to the higher fields of statesmanship should descend in the Senate to the trickeries of politics, out of personal hostility, and with a d[illegible] to influence a [illegible] Perhaps Mr Sumner [illegible] never failed so signally in any undertaking as he has failed in his attempt to prove this charge of an unfriendly sale of arms.

A Great Fact.

A striking proof of the present financial soundness of the country may be seen in a comparison of aggregate amount of business failures one year with another since 1857. This exhibit is published in the New York Financial Chronicle, an unimpeachable authority The aggregate loss by failures during the four years preceding the rebellion were $531,700,000. During the last four years the aggregate losses have been $312,242,000 Let it be borne in mind that the volume of business has been vastly greater during the latter than during the former period We have then this fact, that with an immensely heavier aggregate of business the loss by failures during the last four years have been little more than half what they were during the four years immediately preceding the war There is a reason for this It lies in the fact that our business is now transacted on a sound American basis that, having discarded free-trade we are able to keep possession of and control our own markets, that, having shut off ruinous foreign competition, we are able to develop and control our own industries and conduct business on a basis of security certainty and independence A great fact like that cited stands out as a prominent vindication of the present policy of the country The continuation of this policy and the continued ascendency of the political ideas that support it is, as a sagacious journal expresses it, "our only security against political confusion, financial convulsion, collapse of national debt and credit, and general bankruptcy

A letter from Senator Corbett, which we publish to-day, gives information that he has succeeded in inducing the Senate Committee on Commerce to agree to an appropriation of fifty thousand dollars to build and operate a dredger on the lower Wallamet and Columbia rivers Work at Washington like this is what our State needs Our Republican Senator is untiring and successful in his efforts in behalf of Oregon our Democratic Senator can do nothing but draw his salary Says the Salem Statesman Mr Corbett is the Senator the Herald expresses great anxiety to be rid of It doesn t strike us that the people of Oregon would have much show if a Democrat should get the place The case would go against us by default with another man like Kelly

When the country says the Herald, gets ready for a change that will inevitably result in turning thieves out of office, it will certainly elect a Democratic administration The last and most perfect exhibit of the results of Democratic administration with which the country has been favored was seen no great while ago in New York The phrase, turning thieves out of office, coming from the party which produced Tammany is good Thieves have been turned out of office by wholesale during the past year and that seems to be the reason why so few of a certain party are left in

It is authoritatively announced by the [illegible] D[illegible] of Oregon that Senator Kelly [illegible] the policy which is [illegible] the language as the "passive movement With great display Senator Kelly's name is paraded in opposition to this policy and we are told that since last fall the aspect of affairs has so changed as to render "passivism unnecessary Many Democrats it is intimated who were then disposed to accept it because the Democratic cause seemed utterly hopeless are now returning to the ideas of Bourbon Democracy supposing that they have chances of a triumph on straight Democratic principles It will be readily inferred from the Herald article that Senator Kelly is among those who have undergone this transformation It is the old story of the devil who when he fell sick was very much disposed to be a saint, but who on convalescing returned at once to his old principles and old ways In this case however, the convalescence is wholly deceptive and the Democracy who are suddenly and causelessly elated with their supposed improved prospects will meet with a sudden relapse, as they have done many times heretofore

But in spite of Senator Kelly s recantation it is emphatically true that "passivism is making rapid progress in the Democratic party Since the passive policy was first proposed there has been no official authoritative utterance of the party against it It has been adopted by Democratic Committees and Conventions in State after State The last platform is that adopted by Democrats of Connecticut It declares that the constitutional amendments embodying emancipation civil rights and the enfranchisement of the colored race are "established facts deserving the support of all good citizens The New York Day Book calls this a "humiliating surrender" to the so-called Republican element that opposes Grant It says that the only thing it has seen recorded in praise of the Democratic candidate for Governor is that he "patriotically supported the war and Lincoln s administration" The Day Book asserts that there are many honest Democrats who will not be dragged up to support a platform which they know to be a lie and a fraud Of course this isn't true, as Democrats are always whipped in.

It is just as certain as anything can be that this party in the coming Presidential campaign will stand on a platform similar to that adopted in Connecticut Of course it isn t popular in Oregon but Oregon Democrats must take what is given them Their protests will amount to nothing, and they will all be driven up to the polls to vote for a candidate for President whose greatest claim to praise will be that he "patriotically supported the war and Lincoln's administration," and that he stands on a platform which accepts the constitutional amendments and all leading Republican measures as "established facts which deserve the support of good citizens of all parties"

Tittle tattle to infinity This is what the report of the Investigating Commission which has cost the State so large a sum of money, is There are a few points which should have been made sharp and clear But these are obscured and lost in the endless gabble about trifles of the Commission's own invention The expenditure of several thousand dollars on such a mass of rubbish is far more reprehensible than the loose irregular way of doing business that is charged against the late administration of the State

Dispatches a day or two since stated that another little deficiency of about $300,000 has been disclosed in the city of Brooklyn Tammany had a branch there It takes a considerable time to get to the final results of Democratic administration in those cities.

The Boston Advertiser criticises Mr Greeley. It says "It is well understood that Mr. Greeley is working in his own way to destroy confidence in political agencies which no longer interest him but which are the only support and assurance the country has of good government now and hereafter"

General Grant and his Assailants

[From Harper's Weekly]

If the administration were the seething mass of corruption which it is sometimes alleged to be would the Democratic party be in the moribund condition which the action of its Connecticut convention reveals? Could that party ask anything more favorable to its hopes than a dominant opposition dissolving in its own corruption? What does the situation show but that the Republican hold upon the heart of the country is very sure? Yet what has so confirmed that hold but the general confidence in the character and purpose of the administration? It is true that certain gentlemen who are called the President s friends oppose measures which he has recommended, such as the reform of the civil service and amnesty But the gentlemen have always opposed them and have opposed them openly and despite their opposition the President urges them It is alleged that this shows the President s interest in them to be a shallow pretence Indeed! and when was it shown that the will and tenacity of General Grant were less than those of the gentlemen who are called his friends? And what events in his career justify the theory that his action is mingled of folly and duplicity

From this time to the assembling of the Republican convention the attempt to stain the character of the President and to stigmatize him to the country as unfit for another term, will be incessant and malevolent But he has been in the Wilderness before, and he came out of it They mistake profoundly and perilously who suppose that the people forget, or that the mists of calumny that gather about every administration have obscured the remembrance of the days when General Grant was the hope of America and liberty Coming fresh from the camp to the cabinet has he betrayed one of the great principles of the party which lifted him to power? Differing from many honored leaders as they differ among themselves has he forgotten the emancipated race or the honor of the nation or the welfare of the people? Silent by nature and by the conditions of his position, has he to one honest mind seemed guilty of any of the foul charges that have been thundered against him There will certainly be an indignant reaction in the mind and heart of the American people against the relentless effort to injure the good name of the President of the United States—a reaction which will surely and triumphantly re-elect him as a man who in the fierce light of the intensest party animosity as in the long doubt of the war has shown himself a modest and faithful servant of his country

HARDLY NEEDED The Gold Hill News of February 23d says Early day before yesterday morning, shortly after the killing of O Rourke by Prentice a man came rushing to see Dr Hall telling him that he was wanted down to the Piute House right away as a man was shot through the bowels How badly is he hurt? inquired the doctor Hurt is it? Why the whole belly s blown off him and he s dead Ah well, then what does he want of a doctor? Yes, that s so said the messenger reflectively, and left The doctor went to bed again Some people, apparently do not think a man is officially dead until a doctor pronounces him so.

The report that the Pope has consented in consideration of certain concessions by the Russian Government to the use of the Russian language in religious services in Poland, is explained by the Catholic papers to mean simply that he has authorized the Polish priests to preach and teach the catechism in the Russian language

Sir Stafford Northcote who was one of the Joint High Commissioners writes to the London [illegible] excepting to the unfavorable comments of that journal upon the promotion of Lord Ripon to a Marquisate for his services on the Commission He says the six Commissioners are silent upon the charges of negligence slovenliness and other faults which have been made against them from a desire not further to complicate the unfortunate difficulty which he trusts may yet be satisfactorily solved

About Gas Measurements

[illegible] DIFFERENCE IN THE SPECIFIC GRAVITY OF GASES

The following article from the Journal of Applied Science (New York,) will be interesting to those who live under the gas light The writer says

The custom of paying for gas by the cubic foot, without regard to its illuminating power, is like buying all cloth at a uniform price per yard, without any questions as to the fineness of the wool No one would like to pay as much for shoddy as for cassimere and yet shoddy gas is the principal article now furnished to customers while the price actually paid calls for the best gas that can be made It is really surprising that a monopoly of such a monstrous character should be permitted to maintain itself so many years in an enlightened community and the cause must be sought for in the want of confidence in any legislative enactment to correct the evil under the corrupt government that has inflicted our city during the past few years The people have preferred to be heavily taxed rather than to get into any altercation on the subject but now that honest days begin to have dawned upon us it seems to be a good opportunity to appeal for more light to those who sell that commodity in the shape of gas The city companies should be compelled to furnish gas of a prescribed density and fixed candle power

Some of the London companies pride themselves on keeping up the illuminating powers of their gas to the maximum standard of fifteen candles, and in twenty two English works the gas from the best coal ranges from twelve to fourteen per hour It is difficult to say what the average in New York may be, but from some observation made by ourselves with Benson s photometer we are disposed to put it in cold weather, at below ten candles Besides the loss to the consumer in the amount of light afforded by a poor gas, there is another difference which tells in favor of the company. Assuming the specific gravity of the poor gas to be 5, and that of a rich gas to be 7 50, the former will pass through the burner much faster than the rich, and increase the bills of the consumer from 30 to 50 per cent , without any corresponding increase in the photometric power of the gas There ought to be a fixed standard, say sixteen candles, prescribed by law, and an inspector appointed to see that the companies comply with it and in case of any breach of contract a heavy penalty should be imposed It is not darkness that we want, but light and for the sake of the thousands of poor sewing women and workingmen something should be done to save money and eye-sight Let quality not quantity, govern in this matter We have plenty of gas, but not enough of light.

THE FAITHLESS RESTORED —In South Carolina lately has been enacted another version of the "old, old story" of man s inconstancy and woman's constancy A lady now no longer young after many years of waiting, has been married to her love, who was far from being free She had supposed him dead —killed for the sake of the lost cause and for nine long years had mourned his loss, refusing by the score admirers of her beauty and her wit, both of which were more than ordinary, for she came of a Huguenot stock, renowned for their good looks and good sense, and an ancestress of hers was one of the beauties at the court of Catherine de Medici, and mistress of the King of Navarre While she was thus mourning her life away, her recreant lover was alive and well, and the husband of a Northern woman He had been left dead on one of the fields where the Southern chivalry were worsted, but under the skillful treatment of the Federal surgeons and tender care of a brown-eyed hospital nurse, had regained his lease of life, but lost the heart which was not his to lose Taking advantage of his death being reported, he came to the North and, under a feigned name married his hospital fairy With her he lived happily until the fall of 1870 when death took her away Then at his deserted hearthstone the lonely man thought of his Southern love and his old passion returned He yielded to the yearning to see her again, and with three children the fruit of his marriage, went back to 'Ole Carolina,' and, ashamed and trembling presented himself before her She on her part forgot and forgave him all, and has taken the vows which make her a mother to his children

ANECDOTE OF THE GRAND DUKE ALEXIS — The Emperor s third son, Alexis is in the naval service Somewhat more than a year ago, when holding the rank of midshipman, the flag ship in which he was serving was wrecked on the coast of Denmark The Admiral ordered the life-boats to be lowered and directed Alexis to take charge of the first boat The royal midshipman declined to obey the order It was peremptorily repeated " I your commanding officer order you into the boat Admiral I cannot obey you said the young prince It would not become the son of the Emperor to be the first to leave the ship I shall remain with you to the last " But I shall put you under arrest for disobedience of orders as soon as circumstances will allow me to do so "I mean no disobedience, but I cannot obey, " replied the young hero In due time almost the entire crew reached the shore in safety, only some four or five having perished in the transit from the ship Among the last to land were the Admiral and the Grand Duke Alexis Tents were hastily erected from the sails and spars saved from the wreck and the rigid discipline of shiplife was promptly resumed The young prince was placed under arrest for his previous disobedience of orders As soon as possible the Russian minister at Copenhagen was informed of the facts and telegraphed them to the Emperor, from whom he received the following reply I approve of the act of the admiral in placing the midshipman under arrest for disobedience of orders and I bless and kiss my son for disobeying them —Lippincott s Magazine

Horace Greeley after a long career as one of the straightest sect of Radical Republicans during which he has worn the harness most faithfully and trod in the beaten path without complaint has grown frisky in his old age and now suddenly kicks over the traces with the announcement that the actions of national nominating conventions are not binding on anybody It looks very much as if the venerable philosopher had made up his mind that the National Republican Convention is going to nominate Grant whom he dislikes Hence the pronunciamento of perfect liberty of political conscience We have read in the New York Tribune in days gone by of the moral obligation to sustain one s party

The Boston Times had 1,300 answers to its $1 000 prize problem requiring to know how long it will take a locomotive to run one hundred miles provided it goes fifty miles the first hour twenty five the next twelve and a half the next and so on Of course the offer was eminently safe as the problem involves an infinite progression forever leaving a remainder to be divided or as one of the mathematicians puts it we have the startling proposition that a body may move towards a stationary point always keeping in motion and never reach it Yet most of the replies purport to give the exact time the locomotive would take to reach the end of its journey

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO March [illegible] —There is a [illegible] movement in stocks largely extending toward the eastern Nevada mines At the afternoon Board there were 1,550 shares of Kossuth 1 150 Valley and 2,335 of Exce sior sold Total sales for the day foot up 29 2[illegible]0 shares—contrary to the usual rules the sales at the morning Board exceeding those of the evening

The case of S M Durpe who sued the Southern Pacific Railroad for $50,000 damages for breaking his shoulder by jumping off a car at [illegible] a year was decided in the [illegible] District Court to day Judge Morrison decided that he had no right to jump off the cars while they were in motion and that he being in fault was not entitled to damages

The trial of Mat Harrington the boy indicted for murdering a China cigar maker on [illegible] street by striking him over the head with a club will commence to morrow in the 12th District Court

Chicken boasted to a reporter that they would never hang him He appears to have recovered all his self command which was lost yesterday and is brutal, coarse and profane as ever

A German recently arrived from the East shot himself through the breast with a pistol dying as is supposed instantly at his room at the new Alaska hotel on Pacific street The report of the pistol was not heard by others in the house and he was dead when found He only arrived here two days since

The attendance was large and betting lively at the races at Agricultural park to day

Tactics of the Bolters

The New York Herald thus gives a connected account of the several attacks on the administration by the anti-Grant Republicans "

The bolters from the administration have no faith in themselves as a new party nor in each other as confederates Their whole visible strength is limited to four or five members of the national Senate and to half a dozen newspapers each representing its little clique, and all suspicious of each other As they have all, however, had their disappointments as office seekers they have all at least this common bond of unity against the military despotism at Washington Nor have they been wanting in industry in their efforts to break the prestige of General Grant s popularity and the public confidence in his administration They have been at it for a year and more in the Senate Their war on the St Domingo annexation scheme from the violence of their assaults upon General Grant, betrayed their grand object, but with prompt abandonment of that scheme, on finding there was mischief in it, the President spiked all the guns of that formidable battery Next Messrs Sumner and Fenton were seized with a virtuous fit in the matter of civil service reform, but they were completely flanked on that question by a message from the White House announcing the adoption of the reform suggestion Next Mr Sumner, quoting Henry Clay and various other high authorities in a lengthy preamble, brought in a resolution affirming the saving wisdom of the "one term principle but this experiment against Gen Grant was also a flash in the pan

The case was becoming desperate when the happy thought, like an inspiration, came of this New York Custom House investigation But here, too the developments of corruption, blown to the world, are only those which have been handed down in the system established from one administration to another for forty years, and in immediately undertaking to correct the abuses disclosed, General Grant silences this battery What then, could be done to cripple him with the honest masses of the Republican party? The last resort of impeachment had been talked over and abandoned as utterly impracticable 'We have it, ' cry they, ' in these sales of arms to the French during the Franco-German war And, with a preamble as solemn and portentous as a dozen articles of impeachment, Mr Sumner brings in his resolution for an investigation

The four or five anti Grant Republican Senators, with their half a dozen anti Grant Republican journals, have, in short exhausted their available stock of ammunition in the Senate in this matter of the sales of arms to the French We expect now that they will turn their attention to the approaching New Hampshire and Connecticut elections and as with the full party vote on each side both those States are closely contested a few bolting disciples of Mr Sumner and of his faction may give both those States to the Democrats, If so, you may be sure that Democratic and anti Grant Republican journals will join in shouting hosannas in honor of the great popular revolution calling for the dropping of Grant by the Republican party But the trick will fail The Philadelphia Convention will not be frightened from Grant by such guerrilla tactics as these

The party of Gen Grant is like a regular army well disciplined compact and strong and with a leader who has the confidence of his officers and men the opposition elements including the Democratic party, are like a disorderly array of militia detachments under different leaders with different purposes, here and there and distrustful of each other And so with the renomination of General Grant we suspect that the actual Republican reinforcements to the Democratic camp will be found as profitless as the recruits from Andy Johnson

LIFE INSURANCE AND SUICIDE —A verdict has been given in the Supreme Court against the Knickerbocker Life Insurance Company in a suit turning upon the question of suicide The plaintiff was the widow of a man who had shot himself, and the amount of the insurance policy was $10 000 Payment having been resisted on the ground that the policy contained a clause freeing the company from responsibility in case the party insured should die by his own hand, sane or insane the old question came up again with the usual result The verdict is for the full amount named in the policy with interest added Repeated verdicts of this character against the life insurance companies establish so many precedents that it is evidently useless to continue the process of litigation It would be better to expunge the customary anti suicide clause of the policies than to incur defeat in lawsuits and pay costs besides Juries seem to be readily convinced that the heirs of a suicide are entitled to the policy which he kept up by regular payment of premiums to a life insurance company N Y Advertiser

at ½ clock

SUBJECT— Ought we to have a National System of Compulsory Education?

This subject is rapidly assuming great importance in the minds of the people of the United States The sentiment is growing that we should no longer be content to see ourselves surpassed by the monarchical governments of Europe Our existence as a nation depends upon popular education and our advancement as a nation of power wisdom and virtue will keep pace with its extension Already has a bill been introduced in Congress looking toward the establishment of a National System, and we shall soon find it to be an important element in our politics

MR HARE has devoted considerable study to this subject and his Lecture will be a plea for a national law showing the necessity for it in a moral, religious and civil point He will show the errors in our present system and prove that we have the power to remedy the defects by Congressional enactment

No one who has the welfare of his country at heart can afford to miss this Lecture, It is impossible to overestimate its importance Of Mr Hare s ability to treat this subject it is unnecessary to speak. He is well known in this community as a man of profound and honest convictions a lawyer of much ability and a fluent and agreeable speaker His name is sufficient guarantee that the subject will be presented with all the power which its importance demands

[illegible] PROSECUTION BY PROSECUTION.—Capt Smith of the bark Vesta was arrested again yesterday upon a charge of assault and battery, the com[illegible] being one of the sailors who some days ago were in trouble for desertion. The charge was [illegible] upon the force used by the Captain to [illegible] the sailor from leaving the vessel Judge D[illegible], before whom the case was heard, dis[illegible] the Captain, holding that the force used was only such proper force as was necessary to [illegible] at desertion The Bulletin reporter says, in [illegible] with this case "It is the duty of the [illegible] and officers to see that the laws are [illegible] enforced, but not to permit them to be used for the gratification of maliciousness by persons who will trump up charges and then attempt to [illegible] them by means of perjured evidence. We have used strong language here because we [illegible] during the trial of Captain Smith this [illegible], a person amongst the audience giving signals to some of the witnesses for the purpose of [illegible] the testimony, shaking his head when he wanted a negative answer, nodding for an [illegible], etc It is to be regretted that the Court did not arrest the offender and fine him roundly for [illegible]." We did not hear the trial, but we are [illegible] upon authority entitled to implicit [illegible], that the complaining witness testified to the effect that a police officer had hunted him up, and induced him to lodge the complaint; It appears that the prosecuting witness is an ignorant man, and [illegible] he did not care to prosecute the Captain, he thought he must do it when advised by a [illegible]. If this be all true, the police force [illegible] got one man who ought not to have any such [illegible] as a policeman's baton gives him. If he is countenanced and sustained by the Board of Police Commissioners, in such operations, then it is a shame and disgrace to the Board; and the police establishment has become a [illegible] to the rights and liberties of every citizen of the city We have heard of arrests that have been made under such circum[illegible] as to constitute gross outrage, yet we have not heard that any officer has been dis[illegible] for such conduct We believe there is [illegible] to be a pretty general sentiment in this city that there ought to be a little reformation in the manner of exercising police authority, that the [illegible] ought to exercise their power for the [illegible] of life and property, and for the [illegible] of crime, rather than for the purpose of [illegible] good

P[illegible].—The firemen of Multnomah Engine Co No 2 had another of those little affairs last evening which serve so effectual a purpose to maintain cordial relations among men and to [illegible] and cement lasting friendships The [illegible] of the company presented Mr. A A. Williams, Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, with a beautiful and costly 64-cone fireman's hat for Chief Engineer and a Chief Engineer's belt. Mr. B L Norden made the presentation speech and Mr. Williams responded from a full heart, thanking his brother firemen for not only this but many other manifestations of their [illegible] since he had been elected to the office he now fills. Mr H R Leonard furnished a basket of wine for the occasion and the boys had a jolly evening of it.

FROM MISSOURI TO OREGON.—One B F Tibbets, writes from Newtonia, Missouri, January 11, 1872, to the East Portland Era as follows "Being one of quite a number who are thinking of migrating to Oregon the coming spring or summer, and, learning that your paper contains all the information necessary for emigrants to know, I would like to have you send me a copy per return mail. I think it likely there can be a number of names added to your list of subscribers from this community We all have the Oregon fever here"

PASSENGERS FROM THE NORTH.—Arrived per steamship California from Puget Sound, and Victoria Mrs John Kineth, B Blumauer, Fred Beck, Captain F Stubbs J Driggs M J Daly E Feich ner, M Keely Mrs Inkster and baby B R Wood, Jr, William M Taylor, B Price, E Kohnstamm, C M Bahnam, Thomas Riley John Wahr.

RIVER IMPROVEMENTS

FAVORABLE ACTION OF [illegible] IN CONGRESS ON APPROPRIATIONS FOR OREGON—LETTER FROM SENATOR CORBETT

UNITED STATES SENATE CHAMBER }
Washington, Feb 17 18[illegible] }

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

SIR I now have the satisfaction of informing you that the Committee of Commerce of the House, before whom I have been to day, have agreed to give us fifty thousand dollars for building a new dredger and prosecuting the work on St. Helens and Swan Island bars I also urged the appropriation of at least fifty thousand dollars for the Upper Columbia for the removal of rocks at John Day and other rapids The committee feel that this, however important cannot be given this year and do justice to other sections of the country They say when they get some of the large works now under way off their hands, completed, they can be more liberal towards us I called particular attention of the Committee on Appropriations to the importance of completing the Astoria Custom House this year They have agreed that they will give us the entire amount asked for to complete this work

Yours respectfully
H W CORBETT

LOCAL BREVITIES

Did you see your shadow yesterday?

The false alarm of fire yesterday was up First street

What is now full police uniform Is it still natty blue?

J D Yates an old typo has been appointed on the police force

Several new houses for residences are prominent features in the growth of East Portland

We hear complaints about the fire companies running the engines and hose carts on the sidewalk

The case of Professor McGibbony—producing [illegible] without a license—has been postponed till Saturday

Somebody is preparing to lay down a stone pipe drain along Washington street between First and Second

The ship Cleiah was towed down the river yesterday She is off for the United Kingdom with a cargo of wheat

We see by the Herald that the Democracy of Polk county have gone into the vigilance committee" business

Mr Joseph Middlemiss will hereafter dispose of California vegetables on commission upon the arrival of each steamer

Throwing dirty water in another person's face costs twenty dollars per tumbler full, as was ascertained yesterday by a person in the Police Court

The local reporter of the Herald is ambitious to have us guess at one of his conundrums That's right, boy aim high, and you may yet become an Alderman, or, possibly President

COURT PROCEEDINGS

D Jacobi vs A B Hallock judgment on verdict of jury for $32 damages and $32 costs

William Price vs O & C R R Co. Jury discharged Unable to agree

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

There will be a quarterly meeting of the M E Church, at Clear Creek (Mt Zion) March 9th and 10th

There are revivals reported at Salem, Vancouver, and in Clear Creek Circuit

Rev. S. Matthew, has recently organized a society near Canby, consisting of eight transfers, and nine new accessions

The Methodists and Cumberland Presbyterians of Harrisburg have in progress a protracted meeting and the result so far has been a fruitful revival of religion in that city

Rev. E P Henderson, of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, returned a few days ago from Waitsburg, W T, where, during the winter he succeeded in organizing a church of twenty six members

J S. Smith, now at Brooklyn near Oakland, California, writes to the Advocate that his health is so poor, he cannot attend the General Conference, this year Mr Smith is a Lay Delegate, and his first alternate is Mr E N Cooke of Salem, and, second, Wm Patterson of Olympia. Mr Smith writes that he is most of the time confined to his room

EAST PORTLAND MATTERS

[From the Era]

WHARF AND WAREHOUSE.—Several parties are discussing the propriety of building a wharf and warehouse on this side of the river, and we believe it will end in something more substantial than mere talk

PROGRESSING FINELY.—Work on Second street has been progressing finely since the waters subsided, the gravel trains averaging from ten to fifteen trips daily The completion of this work at an early day, will be gladly hailed by our citizens, as it will afford convenience in passing to and fro from the depot, whereas those having business now in that quarter, and residing in this neighborhood, have to take a roundabout way

THAT PLANK ROAD.—The continued agitation of the idea that a plank road from this city would be of great benefit to the people at either Vancouver or East Portland, have caused many to believe that the day is not far distant when it will become an accomplished fact Mr. J S Knott feels so assured of this termination to the discussion of the subject that he is making preparations to place a steam ferry on the river where the line of the road crosses the Columbia We also hear of others who wish to take stock in this enterprise if it cannot be constructed otherwise.

STONE FOR POSTOFFICE.—The steamer California brought another lot of one hundred and ninety five tons of stone from Bellingham Bay for the Portland Postoffice and Custom House

THE UMATILLA HOUSE at The Dalles is now completed and furnished in every respect unsurpassed The office is the most cheerful and pleasant in the State and the dining hall is unequaled The rooms are all newly furnished The house has twelve suites of rooms with stoves in them for families. The new house stands much higher than the old one. The ceilings are four feet higher which adds greatly to the cheerfulness of the rooms The table is kept in a style to correspond fully with the appointments.

A GOOD IDEA.—Messrs Hibbard & Shindler, desirous of accommodating their customers in this city, have had manufactured expressly for their use a splendid Furniture Wagon with which they will convey to purchasers any article in their line Free of Charge They are making room for New Goods and selling their present stock at Low Prices The public will find this the time to make purchases They have New Specialties in Furniture Mattresses and other goods in their line Remember anything they sell will be delivered free to any part of the city.

FILLING UP CONSTANTLY.—Messrs J s Kohn & Co at the old stand of Kohn & Klabel 91 Front street have filled up their establishment with a full line of Clothing for the Spring trade They are about to commence the jobbing business, and will therefore have at all times the Largest Stock in the city As one of the firm is in San Francisco and will buy the Latest Styles it will be seen at once that Jos. KOHN & Co's will be the place to find bargains in Clothing and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods The firm needs no further endorsement Their guarantee full satisfaction, so give them a call

The Metropolis Altercation

In the matter of a slight altercation at the Metropolis Hotel there seems to be a disposition through prejudice or otherwise to cast odium on one of the parties without giving the facts After the Hon Police Judge had imposed a fine (which I presume did not strain a con[illegible]) they published one of the parties names without giving the other The other being a brilliant [illegible] by the name of Orlando Packard having just been made the recipient of G[illegible] Grover's favor in the shape of an appointment as Notary Public, and this presuming upon his importance he thereby received the tumbler full in his face mh8t1

AMUSEMENTS.

THE PEARL OF SAVOY.—This brilliant and romantic melodrama was performed last evening at Oro Fino Theater to a good house the audience being in a large part composed of the most intelligent and critical of our theater goers This being the fact it is easy to see that the very liberal applause he [illegible] obtained was given upon its merits The Pearl of Savoy holds a high rank among the compositions of the dramatic world and always secures the popular favor when properly produced as Mr Waldron has succeeded in doing at Oro Fino The characters are Parisian and Savoyard Mr Waldron enacts Father [illegible] the father of Marie, the Pearl (Mrs Waldron) It is an old man character and one in the line of which Mr Waldron is particularly effective he gave us a finished artistic personation Mrs Waldron as Marie has a long and laborious part but she sustained herself in it quite well indeed and very much to the satisfaction of the audience She made several of the scenes very affecting and she carried with her, throughout the entire sympathies of her auditors Mr Barry as Pierrot was excessively amusing Miss Annie Pixley had an eccentric flighty, high flyer sort of character, as Chouchou which she "got away with" in first rate style winning liberal plaudits and laughter Miss Pell made a very good Marchioness—haughty and supercilious She is getting along in her profession Mrs Bird and Fulford were in characters not so well suited to them as many in which we have seen them, but we could not, after all find any particular fault with them. It will be repeated this evening and until further notice

To the Afflicted.—Dr Aborn corner Third and Morrison streets treats with unparalleled success all chronic diseases no matter how painful or long standing

Periodic Disorders.

The paroxysmal maladies which are characterized by heat and cold prevail extensively at this season and it is a curious fact that in many parts of the country where they are prevalent, other diseases, that bear no general resemblance to fever and ague or remittent fever, assume a periodic type Thus in many sections infested with chills and fever, rheumatism, neuralgia, dyspepsia, diarrhœa etc sometimes become intermittent, thereby indicating that they have been engendered by the same poisonous exhalations which produce the first named disease.

In all these masked cases of ague—for such they are—as well as in the regular intermittents, the most safe and reliable remedy that can be administered is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters Neither quinine nor arsenic are needed Both are in the highest degree dangerous, and are sure to leave sad traces of their poisonous action in the system, whether they arrest the paroxysms or not In many instances all the so called specifics of the "regular" materia medica utterly fail to "break up" intermittent and remittent disorders But the great vegetable Tonic never fails. The spasm of the minute blood vessels which causes the chill is the result of nervous weakness, produced by the debilitating operation of an unwholesome atmosphere, and the tone and vigor given to the nervous system by the Bitters enable it to throw off the disease The wiser policy, however is to anticipate attacks of this nature by arousing all the latent energies of the body, at the commencement of the moist and chilly season with this incomparable antidote. By pursuing this course intermittents, remittents, rheumatism colic biliousness, dyspepsia and pulmonary affections may always be prevented

Presidential.

[From the New York Independent.]

The delegates from Maine to the next National Republican Convention have adopted a resolution recommending General Grant and Schuyler Colfax as the first choice of Maine Republicans. The Republican State Central Committee of Ohio have called a State Convention to appoint delegates to the Philadelphia Convention in June. The committee adopted a resolution "expressing the hope that the entire Republican party would unite on the renomination of General Grant." The delegates from Georgia, appointed some time since, have been expressly instructed to vote for General Grant as "the first, last and only choice" of the Republicans in that State. The Republican State Convention of Connecticut strongly indorsed General Grant, and appointed a delegation to the June Convention known to be unanimously in favor of his renomination. The anti-Grant Republicans, who are now straining every nerve to prevent this result, do not seem to make any adverse impression upon the great body of the Republican party. Any intelligent man, unbiased by personal considerations, can readily see that the clamor of politicians against General Grant goes for but little with the people. The same sort of clamor was tried against Abraham Lincoln, in 1864; and it had no effect upon the popular judgment. The people believed in President Lincoln, and they were determined to show their faith by their works. They now believe in U. S. Grant as an honest, patriotic, and wise executive head of the Government. They have the evidence to this effect in the character and results of his administration; and this is the reason why they propose to re-elect him for a second term. Those politicians, comparatively few in number, who are so intense and even personal in their opposition to him, ought by this time to see that the Republican party has no idea of following their lead. The wisest thing for them is to suspend this opposition, and acquiesce in what is the undoubted judgment of the many. They must ultimately do this or take the ground of bolters: and the sooner they do it, if they mean to do it at all, the better for themselves and for the great interests which are represented by the Republican party. They ought to heed its voice and respect its preference, whatever may be their own private opinions or wishes. We cannot think that Senator Sumner really desires a Republican defeat at the next Presidential election; yet his personal apathy to General Grant is leading him wonderfully astray, if he wishes to secure a Republican victory in the approaching contest. It is high time for him carefully to review his own position, and especially to see whither it is tending.

Factional Opposition.

The following pointed article is from the New York Independent, a paper whose judgments are always candid and sound:

The Springfield Republican says: "If Gen. Grant is nominated at Philadelphia there will be organized at Cincinnati an opposition party, under the lead of liberal and reform Republicans, that will stoutly dispute his re-election, and certainly divide the Republican party. If he is not nominated, the opposition movement, based now almost wholly on the idea of resisting his re-election, will receive a staggering blow, and be forced to seek, in a great measure, new issues, new materials and new motives. For the purpose of this [illegible] it will be practically destroyed." All this may be true; yet it means, if it means anything, that the condition upon which the so-called "liberal and reform Republicans" will adhere to the Republican party, is that, in respect to one man, they shall have the privilege of deciding who shall not be its nominee for the next Presidency. On this one point their decree must rule the party, even though the great body of Republicans think General Grant to be the man who of all others ought to be nominated. Nominate him, and then look out for "an opposition party, under the lead of liberal and reform Republicans," that will seek to defeat his re-election. Drop him, and these Republicans will wheel into line. This is the plain English of the matter; and it is hardly possible to conceive a weaker argument. We have always supposed that, in reference to the selection of candidates, the preference of the majority was the rule with political parties, and that when this is ascertained in the proper manner the minority might fairly be expected to acquiesce. The Republican, however, gives notice that this rule will be reversed in the event that General Grant should be nominated by the Philadelphia Convention. This new doctrine is a virtual menace beforehand, to which the Republican party should not give heed for one moment. If, in the choice of its standard-bearers, it must bow to the ipse dixit of the minority, in order to prevent a bolt, then let the bolt come. No political party can live upon any such principle. The argument against Genral Grant is in the state of articulo mortis when it is compelled to stake its success upon such a theory.

The British Question.

[illegible] Woolsey in the N. Y. Independent.

The point at issue is a simple one. It is [illegible]: What was submitted by the two governments to the arbitrators [illegible] in the treaty? Was it certain acts only of certain vessels which had been allowed to go forth from British ports, or had escaped from such ports, against the laws of neutrality, which laws are specifically defined in the treaty; or the indirect results also of such acts? The governments have no right to withdraw from the treaty, or refuse to abide by the decision of the arbitrators, if that decision [illegible] be confined to points which had been submitted to them. But each one of the governments has a right to say that the submission of certain points was never thought of by it; and, in an extreme case, if the arbitrators still went on after protest to give a decision, to refuse to abide by that decision. In such an event, the other country would be authorized to take any of those steps which are allowed, in cases where treaties are alleged to be violated, even to the extreme one. As we have said, if indirect and consequential injuries were not to be submitted to the arbitrators, then the United States did not, by making no mention of them, abandon them, and may resume their claims on this account. This, then, is the dilemma. They were or were not included in the submission. If they were, they must be considered, and Great Britain cannot withdraw from the arbitration, or refuse to abide by it. If they were not, why can they not, after a longer or shorter sleep, wake up again? But for our part, we hope that an end is to come to these claims now. If not, an end is likely to come to the faith in international arbitration which has gladdened the hearts of so many.

PAPER GARMENTS.—When paper collars first came into use it created general merriment, because regarded an absurdity. Paper pocket handkerchiefs of the Japanese was another ridiculous conceit. But times are rapidly changing. Paper collars are extensively in demand, fortunes upon fortunes have already been made by manufacturing them, and the business is in its infancy. Ladies' garments begin to be made of paper. Coats and vests will soon be on sale made from the same material. They are actually quite as warm as cotton, being non-conductors of heat. Prepared in a familiar chemical preparation they will not take fire. Lastly, a mere sprinkling of cotton in the paper pulp prevents it from being torn.

Such is the progress of art and science within a few years, extensive ware houses may appear stocked with paper clothing. The best water pipes are made of paper, being almost indestructible in the ground. Houses, too, and even a fine church has been erected in Austria, built of paper.

A queer lawsuit is reported from Pennsylvania, where a young girl, engaged to a young man she loved, became imbued with the Woodhull doctrine and refused to marry him, but offered to live with him. He declined the seductive offer, and canceled the engagement; whereupon she, with remarkable inconsistency, brought an action against him for breach of promise.

Gold in New York, [illegible]

Portland Legal Tender quotations, [illegible] buying and 91½c selling.

Gold Bars, 890 fine.

Exchange on San Francisco, ¼ per cent. premium, on New York, 1¼ per cent prem. Telegraphic transfers on San Francisco, 1¼ per cent., on New York, 1¾ per cent. prem.

The steamship California, from Sound ports, arrived last night. She is announced to sail on Monday for Victoria and Sound ports.

The bark Almatia sailed from San Francisco March 2d. A copy of her manifest is given below.

The bark Harrington put into San Francisco. The Captain had thrown overboard 25 tons of Wheat before she was "righted." The Captain intended shipping another crew and sail for destination—Cork.

No vessel had crossed the Bar when the Dixie Thompson left Astoria, and none reported outside.

The ship Cheiah cleared to-day for Cork. She has on 14,530 sks Wheat—18,513 centals—valued at $41,880.

Very general pleasure is expressed by our merchants at the reappearance of Capt. Connor. He came up in command of the Oriflamme. It is very generally conceded that a more fitting compliment could not have been paid us than by replacing Capt. Connor in command on this line, more particularly now that Capt. Floyd, in whom all placed great confidence, owing to the cares of business, had to resign his position and retire to private life.

It is to be deeply regretted that the North Pacific Transportation Company advanced freight on produce at this season of the year for it works a great hardship on our millers, and those who have purchased Wheat. We are firmly convinced that there is not one of our millers covering expenses in manufacturing Flour, and this action on the part of the N. P. T. Co. will cause them to lose more heavily. The advance on up freight no one seriously objects to, but on down freight, Wheat and Flour, all think it premature—that no advance should be established until after harvest, if then. The result will be that less grain will be seeded than if freight on Wheat and Flour were not disturbed. With a low market staring our farmers in the face, an advance of 5 cents per cental on freight is too much, and will work an injury to us all—railroads as well.

WEEKLY MARKET REVIEW.

Produce Market.

BREAD—Quotable, Soda, 7c; Picnic, 7c; Butter, 7c; Jenny Lind, 11c; Gingersnaps 11c; Pilot, extra, 5½c; Medium, 5c; Navy, 4c.

WHEAT—During the past week we note the sale of a straight lot to a shipper at $1 86 ℔ cental, and of another lot of 1,800 centals to a miller at between $1 90 and $1 92½ as per mill rendered, although sellers claim to have sold at 2c ℔ lb sacked. The advance in steamer freight to San Francisco and short supply of sail tonnage coming from San Francisco, together with the scarcity of foreign vessels in port to load for the United Kingdom, will greatly operate against the possibility of higher prices ruling this season. Is unfavorable weather prevents [illegible], but with any kind of favorable weather within the next six weeks a large area will be put in cultivation. The steamship Idaho, for San Francisco, took out 1,800 sks. The bark H. W. Almy, now on the berth, will take on 5,000 centals for San Francisco. We quote market to shippers, $1 83@1 85 ℔ cental, sacked. Choice milling commands $1 87½@1 92½ ℔ cental.

FLOUR—Shipments to San Francisco continue, but are less liberal, owing to low prices ruling in that city. The steamship Idaho took out 3,500 bbls; the bark Almy, now on the berth will take out 2,500 bbls. We are not advised as yet whether the steamship Oriflamme will receive much for San Francisco, as the advance in freights will probably react against it. There are several heavy orders on the market for Puget Sound and Victoria which will be executed by outgoing steamer California, which will leave here about Saturday. The local demand has been fair at current rates. Receipts for the past week have been good but not free. We quote extra of standard brands at $6 25 ℔ bbl; choice country, $5 75@6; outside and superfine, $5 25@5 50.

OATS—So far as we are able to learn the supply in the country is larger than at first reported, but at the same time we are not in a position to say positively regarding it, for our information comes from buyers, and we give it as we get it; but this we do know, prices in California are ruling low, and supplies can be obtained from there at such rates as will prevent higher prices. We quote market for California at 2@2½c ℔ lb; Oregon, 2½@2¾c ℔ lb, in jobbing lots.

BARLEY—All received was ordered for brewers, so there is no more in market.

POTATOES—Firm hardening. The Oriflamme brought up very few. The California, from Victoria and Sound ports has on —— sks. We quote market for Oregon and Sound, 1¼@1½c ℔ lb.; California at 1@1¼c.

ONIONS—Supply liberal and shaded. We quote jobbing rates at 2½@2¾c ℔ lb.

FEED—Freer receipts have caused prices to rule weaker with hardly any change. We quote Bran at $25 ℔ ton; Middlings, Shorts, Chop, etc, $35@45.

HAY—Liberal receipts with consumers only in consequence of a large supply reported in the interior, causing the market to rule weak for baled Timothy at $25 ℔ ton; other descriptions, $15@20.

OIL MEAL—Supply is obtained from San Francisco, owing to the Pioneer Works at Salem being unable to meet the increased call. We quote jobbing lots at $50 ℔ ton.

BUTTER—Stock continues large with supplies still coming forward from California. Interior receipts light. We quote market weak at 30@40c for choice in rolls; solid, 20@25c; fancy dairy, 40@45c.

PROVISIONS—Stocks large with demand light. Receipts from the interior liberal, considering stock here. Without an improvement in San Francisco market prices will break. As it now is if a lot was put on the market it would not command within 1½ cents of our quotations. We quote the market nominal in jobbing lots for Bacon, 13½@14c; Hams, 15@17½c; Shoulders, 10½@11½c; Lard, in tins, 14@16c; in kegs, 13@14c; Johnson's new, 16c; Keller's, 16c. Pork, in bbls, $22. Beef, in bbls, $13.

FRESH MEATS—Quote market firm for Beef at 7@8½c per lb; Pork, on foot, 4½@5c; dressed 8@9c; Sheep, $4@5 per head.

HIDES—Quotable at 17@18½c for dry; 8@9 for salted.

TALLOW—Quotable at 5@6c ℔ lb.

WOOL—Offering for new clip 40c ℔ lb. San Francisco advices quote market at 37½@45c ℔ lb.

POULTRY—Market for Hens and Roosters, $4 50@5 ℔ dozen; Turkeys, $18@20; Geese, $9 50@10 50; Ducks, $5@8 ℔ doz.

SEEDS—We quote market for Timothy, 12½@15c ℔ lb; Clover, red, 25@30c ℔ lb; white, 50@[illegible] ℔ lb; Orchard, Grass, 37@50c ℔ lb; Blue Grass, 60@75c ℔ lb.

BEANS—We quote market in jobbing lots: Bayo, 4½c ℔ lb; Butter, 4½c ℔ lb; Pea, 4½c ℔ lb; Small White, 4c ℔ lb; Pinks, 4c ℔ lb.

EGGS—Market well supplied, with receipts liberal. Prices weak at 22 cents ℔ dozen.

General Merchandise.

The market for the past week has been characterized by great activity, the volume of business being greater than for any week this year. In Agricultural Implements there is an increased demand, with a good supply on hand and to arrive. In Hardware the call has been good, as also in Boots, Shoes, Dry Goods, Clothing, etc., all of which showing a strong upward tendency on previous advances established. In Groceries, the call has been very active, with prices firm and advancing in all lines except Refined sugars, prices for which have been marked down 2c ℔ lb, and on Syrup 10c ℔ gallon. The reduction in prices here is in consequence of a sharp competition between the San Francisco refineries—which promises to be short but sweet.

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS—Gay's plow, Pit[illegible] patent, $60; Sulky, $60; Eureka, $60. Buckeye Grain Drill, 9 hoe, $120; 10-hoe, $125. Plows, Collin's cast cast steel, $70; Moline cast steel, $15; Moline Breaker, $46; Moline Clipper, $19 50; Peoria Clipper, $17 50; Boston Clipper, $14 50. Cider Mills—Junior Buckeye, $35 00; Hutchin's $27 50; Hickok, $60. Grant's Fanning Mills, $40@47 50. Mitchell and Bain Wagons, complete, $155@$195.

ALCOHOL—Quotable in bbls firm at $2 15 ℔ gal. in cases, $2 20@2 25.

BAGS AND BAGGING—Quotable for standard size, 17@17½c as per quality and quantity; Fl ur Sacks, 11½c; Burlap per yard. 14a15c.

BUILDING MATERIAL—Local demand dull at prices ranging, for rough lumber, $12@14; dressed, $12@30; flooring, $24@28; lath, $3 per M; shingles, $2 50; Eastern hardwood, 17@20c per foot.

BROOMS—Quotable at $3@5 50.

CANNED GOODS—Oysters $3@3 25; Jams and Jellies, $4 75@5 50; Los Angeles Honey, $4 50; Strawberries, $4; Raspberries, $4; Blackberries, $4; Pine Apple, $3 50; Green Gages, $3 75@4; Peaches, $4 25@4 50; Pie Fruit, $3@3 50; Green Peas, $3 25; Green Beans, $3 25; Lobsters, $2 50@3 75; Clams, $4; Green Corn, $2 75@3; Tomatoes, $2 50@2 75.

CANDLES—We quote market firm at 18@20c, full weight; light weight 13@15c.

COFFEE—Market well sustained at the following jobbing prices. Costa Rica and Guatemala, 22@22½c; Rio and Manila, 21@21½c; Java, 27½@30c. J. F. Jones & Co.'s Ground Java, 27½c; Chartres, 26c; Phoenix nix Premium, 20@22c.

CRANBERRIES—Eastern jobbing at $20 ℔ bbl of 36 gallons each.

CEMENT, &c.—New Jersey, $6; Astoria, $4 50; Calcine Plaster, $5; Land Plaster, $2 75; Santa Cruz Lime, $2 75; San Juan Lime, $2 75.

DRY GOODS—Standard drills, 15@16½c; seconds, 13c; Sheetings, light, 11½c; medium 12½c; standard, 14@16c; house lining, 9½@10c; bleached sheeting, ¾, 9@10c; do, ⅞, 10½a13½c; do, 4-4, 13@25c. RAILROAD LANDS.

OFFICE OF LAND DEPARTMENT,
Oregon and California R. R. Co. and European and Oregon Land Co.

PORTLAND, OREGON, August 1, 1871.

THE COMPANY IS NOW PREPARED TO EXTEND the pre-emption privilege of purchasing Railroad Lands in advance of the same being placed in market to all parties desirous of securing them on the following terms:

The applicant filing in this office a claim in the form prescribed to-wit:

Pre-emption, date, No. ——.

To the Land Agent of the European and Oregon Land Company:

SIR: You are hereby notified that I have settled upon and improved (description of land) in the county of —— State of Oregon, containing —— acres, and that I claim a pre-emption right to purchase said lands at the Company's valuation in accordance with the following resolution of the Directors of said Company, adopted on the twenty-sixth day of May, A. D. 1871, to the terms of which I hereby fully assent:

"Resolved, That the parties settling upon and improving any of the lands of the European and Oregon Land Company, before the same are opened for market, shall be entitled to the pre-emption privilege of purchase on the same terms as the Company would sell the land for without improvement, and shall be subject to the same conditions of payment, as all other lands belonging to the Company, when brought into market, provided, such settlers shall file in the Land Office of said Company, written application, giving notice of such settlement, and shall accept the privilege upon the condition that when the price of the land shall be fixed, notice thereof shall be sent by the Company's Land Agent, through the Postoffice, or otherwise, as may be convenient, to the residence of the party claiming the pre-emption privilege, and if the land is not purchased by the said party within sixty days from the date of such notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person."

(Name of applicant.)

(Post-office address.)

When the application is received, a certificate, signed by the Agent, obligating the Company to the terms, will be sent to the claimant in the following form:

PRE-EMPTION CERTIFICATE, NO. ——.

This is to certify that ——, of —— county, State of Oregon, has this day filed, in this office a pre-emption claim to (description of premises), and is hereby entitled to the first privilege of purchasing said land at the Company's valuation, (which is to be made without reference to improvements) when the same shall be placed in market, in accordance with a resolution of the Board of Directors of said Company, adopted May 26, A. D. 1871.

When the price of the above described land is fixed, notice thereof will be sent to the party to whom this Certificate is issued, and if the land is not purchased by the said party or the holder hereof within sixty days from the date of said notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person.

(Signed) Land Agent of the E. & O. Land Co.

The lands will be appraised by a competent, disinterested party, under oath at their actual present value—no fancy or prospective price on the basis of similar lands in the vicinity, and when an assessment is made they will be sold in quantity not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres to one person, payable in five equal annual installments, with interest from date of contract, at ten per cent per annum, principal and interest payable in United States Legal Tender Notes. Warranty deeds given after United States Patent issues, upon payment in full.

Blank forms of application furnished upon request.

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years' standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the [illegible] of Europe, and has resumed practice at his office on Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor [illegible] in seeking out new remedies, and has returned [illegible] facilities for the alleviation of human [illegible]

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering on [illegible] once from the effects of certain indulgences, absorbed into the system! Look at their [illegible] ted and disfigured faces and their [illegible] tions, disqualifying them for the happiness or the enjoyment of life. Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the [illegible] Some of the self-styled doctors, whose advertisements are found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and [illegible] lazy too work at their trades. Some are [illegible] makers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their names. Institutes is it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid [illegible] is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in nine cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by [illegible] titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.
